SOCIAL NEWS OF SOUTHEASTERN FLORIDA

COCOA WOMEN ACTIVE IN SOCIAL AND DRAMATIC AFFAIRS OF EAST COAST CITY DURING WEEK

MRS. THOMAS BLYTHE

MISS MARY LEILA DIXON

MISS ORPHA COLE

MISS FREDDIE BRYAN

MRS. E. J. CABOT

Mrs. Thomas Blythe, Mary Leila Dixon and Freddie Bryan, all of Cocoa, took an active part in the presentation of "The Whole Town's Talking," a play staged in that city under the auspices of the Cocoa chapter of the order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Blythe is junior matron of the chapter, and took an important role in the play. Miss Dixon took the part of Sally Otis in the play, and Miss Bryan played the part of Ethel Simmons. Miss Orpha Cole, shown above, is home demonstration agent for Volusia county, with headquarters at DeLand. She has been selected, along with five others from the United States, to visit Europe this summer at the expense of the government to study demonstration methods of European nations. Mrs. E. J. Cabot, also being shown above, is one of the best known women of Fort Lauderdale, being the mother of William C. Kyle, president of the Fort Lauderdale Bank & Trust Company; Mrs. John Grant and Fred M. Cabot of Fort Lauderdale, and Neal Cabot of Perrine. She has lived in Fort Lauderdale for the last 19 years. She is very prominent in the church activities of the East Coast City.

SEBRING

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the marriage of Dorothy Aline Deberry and Richard R. Pierce of Okeechobee.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Watts will return shortly to their home in Dayton, Ohio, after spending the winter in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Durkin, Lakeview drive, entertained Wednesday night at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Marion J. Sheen and David Morgan. Mrs. Sheen returned Wednesday morning from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Savannah, Ga.

A. W. Smith and son, Julian of Birmingham, Ala., stopped in Sebring Wednesday a short time on their way to Miami from the West Coast.

Mrs. John Goode, who has been here for several months, left Sunday for New York City to spend a short time and to close her home. The Goodes will make their residence in this city.

Howard Brooks of the C. L. Brooks Construction Company, has returned here after spending several weeks in Miami.

Mrs. William Oates was a business visitor in Avon Park Tuesday and Wednesday.

Helen Moyer and Beatrice Barnes are spending a few days in Arcadia on business.

C. R. Young of Toledo, Ohio, and Dan Kelly of Boston, have returned to their homes after spending several months in this city as employes of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Mrs. P. Aronson and daughter, Rosa Lee, left Saturday morning for Miami, where they sailed aboard the H. F. Alexander for New York City to spend the summer. They will be guests of relatives and friends, and Miss Aronson will act as bridesmaid at her cousin's wedding, which will be an event of early June. Before returning to Sebring in the fall Mrs. Aronson and her daughter will visit in Atlantic City, Washington, D. C., and their former home, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Bender have returned to their home in New York City after spending the winter here.

Walter Hygema and Charles Miller have returned from a short business visit in Palm Beach and Miami.

Mrs. Minnie B. Matthews of this city and Avon Park, has left for her home in Grand Rapids, Mich., after spending the season here. She was accompanied by Mrs. Bertha T. Matthews of Hastings, Mich., who also spent the winter in Avon Park, where she taught the fifth grade.

Mrs. N. N. Johnson of the Highlands Abstract Company in Avon Park and Helen Smith of the Jacaranda Hotel were business visitors in the city recently.

Louis Rosenbaum has returned from a visit in Atlanta. He was the guest of relatives and friends and also attended grand opera while there.

G. V. Hudson has returned from a business visit in New York City and Philadelphia.

Dave London will leave shortly for the Catskill mountains to spend the greater part of the summer.

Mrs. A. Wolf left Saturday night for her home in New York City to join Mr. Wolf, who returned there several days ago. The Wolfs are winter residents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sickler motored to Tampa Friday, where Secretary Sickler went on business.

Katherine Mack has returned to home in Sanford after a short visit here with Irene Taylor in the La Senorita Apartments.

Mrs. H. A. Poer and daughter, Etta, spent last Sunday in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hevey and children and nurse motored to Lakeland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burton of DeSoto City, announce the arrival of a baby girl.

Edith Werner, owner and hostess of the Tu-Lip-T room, left Tuesday for Hendersonville, N. C., for a short visit. Miss Werner will be accompanied by Mrs. I. C. Faulk.

Mrs. George Denman has left for Urbana, Ohio, where she will take part in a large wedding there early in the summer. Mrs. Denman will be the guest of relatives and friends in that city for several weeks. She will return here later to join Mr. Denman, who is associated with Highland Lakes. They are at home in the Sebring-Ivey apartments on Lakeview drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Millary and Mr. and Mrs. George Peck have left for a trip through the Middle West and Canada after an enjoyable winter in Sebring. They expect to return here early in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eyman have returned from a short visit to Tampa.

Mrs. Robert Finn, who has been a patient in the Weems hospital for several days, returned to her home recently.

John Moriarity left Wednesday for Charlemont, Mass. He was accompanied by Fred Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kelly and daughter, Martha, left Wednesday for Grove City, Pa., their Northern home. They will travel by way of Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio. They expect to be back in the fall.

John E. Graham returned Tuesday from an extended business and pleasure trip to Salem and Roanoke, Va.

B. F. Lanham and the Rev. O. G. White left Tuesday for Miami.

Mrs. Louise Boehmer and Carolyn Boehmer have returned to their home at River Forest, Ill. They will take the boat from Tampa to New Orleans.

Dean Alvord of Clearwater and his son Eric have left for an extended fishing trip on the East Coast. They were guests Tuesday night at the Sebring. Eric will leave for New York City the latter part of next month and after a short stay there will go west for the summer. He will spend several months on the H. F. Bar ranch near Sheridan, Wyo., returning to Sebring in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Boehmer have returned from a trip to Tampa, where they accompanied Mr. Boehmer's mother and sister, who are leaving by boat for the North.

The many friends of Guy A. True will be sorry to learn of the death of his mother, who passed away suddenly Monday in Lakeland. Mr. and Mrs. True left early Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kline and son Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Cater have returned from West Palm Beach.

J. C. Helms of Miami Beach is spending a short time in this city with Mr. and Mrs. William Whalen.

Ralph Devore has returned to his home in Palm Beach after spending some time here with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ward.

F. V. Allen, saxophone player with the Kenilworth orchestra, left on Wednesday for his home in Atlantic City. On the way he will visit in Asheville and Charlotte, N. C. Mr. Allen was accompanied by C. M. Fremstead.

Philip Ershler, prominent attorney of Washington, D. C., is spending a short time in this city. He is a guest at the Sebring and is greatly impressed with the city and the ridge section.

VERO BEACH

MRS. CLAY STARKE and Mrs. Russell Atkinson entertained during the past week at Mrs. Starke's new home on Osceola boulevard. Nine tables were arranged for bridge.

L. F. David will leave during the coming week for points in Indiana.

Mrs. Harriet Gerner entertained Tuesday with a bridge luncheon. Four games of bridge were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Duncan and Mrs. Herbert Guy.

Mrs. F. E. Bailey and guests, Mrs. F. Berbley and Miss Lorna Berbley of New York, attended a bridge luncheon Tuesday given by Mrs. J. S. Bailey of Fort Pierce.

Members of the Three Link Club entertained with a benefit party at Gilman's restaurant Wednesday evening.

Paul Schnee and family left during the week for an indefinite visit in the North.

Mrs. George Duncan has entered the Fort Pierce hospital, where she will undergo a minor operation.

Mrs. C. E. Sandison is visiting in Lake Worth.

Mrs. Herman J. Kuppers entertained at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. James Buckingham, who left Friday for her home in Morristown, Ind., after spending the winter with her son and daughter, Walter Buckingham and Mrs. Talbert.

Mrs. Charles Rigdon, who has spent the winter in Vero Beach, left Wednesday for her home in Indiana.

Miss Rose Jermain and her sister, Mrs. Stiles, left during the week for their home in Philadelphia. Miss Jermain expects to return in about a month.

Dr. Warren left Tuesday for his home in Dunbar, Pa., after spending the winter as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Atkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cockrell have returned to their home in Kendallville, Ind., after spending the winter with their son, Herbert Cockrell.

Mrs. E. C. Walker announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Margaret Roberts, to Talmadge B. Rydall of Sebastian. The marriage ceremony was preformed April 21 by the Rev. Crews of Vero Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Rydall will reside in North Sebastain.

Mrs. H. Lebos entertained four tables of the Aladdin Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at the Vero restaurant. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Miles McNece, Mrs. J. H. Sullivan and Mrs. L. H. Vinnedge.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Boam entertained a number of friends at bridge Thursday in honor of her brother, A. J. Davidson, who will leave for his home in Beaver Falls, Pa., after spending the winter in Vero Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fitting left Monday for their home in Los Angeles, Calif., after spending the winter here.

Mrs. Gordon Olmstead entertained a number of friends with a bridge luncheon Thursday at her new home in Shadowlawn.

Misses Selina Rudell and Eileen Cullen were visitors Sunday at West Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emos of Hollywood, were Vero Beach visitors over Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bacon.

Members of the Tri-City Club and their friends spent a very enjoyable evening at cards Friday at the new Aladdin Clubhouse.

Mrs. Caroline Shilds left Monday for her home in the North, after spending the winter in Vero Beach.

Mrs. James Cullen of East St. Louis, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Miss Eileen Cullen.

P. C. Harbaugh, manager of the Vero Del Mar Hotel, has returned to Pittsburgh for the summer.

E. J. Wood of Hehira, Ga., is in Vero Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burdick were Vero Beach visitors Sunday.

BOYNTON

MRS. R. C. HIGGINS will leave shortly for a visit to her son at his home in Indiana.

Mary Cornman, who has been in West Palm Beach for a few weeks, has returned to the home of her brother, I. Wright Cornman, here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Meredith and little daughter, Margaret, motored to Belle Glade last Sunday, spending the day as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Talcott, who have spent the season with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Knuth, left recently for their home in Michigan after enjoying their visit to Boynton greatly.

Paul Mercer of Miami spent Sunday in Boynton as a guest at the M. S. White home on Ocean avenue.

Mrs. Charles Voss of Miami, accompanied by her son, Stephen, who have been visiting relatives here, returned to Miami.

Mrs. Charles Dunkley is spending some time in Miami with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierce and children of West Palm Beach were Sunday visitors at the C. W. Pierce home.

SILVER PALM

THE following persons are attending the standard training school for Christian workers at the White Temple, Miami: Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Davis, Mrs. A. L. Chandler, Miss Ellie Whitworth, Miss Gladys Anderson, Miss Flora Farnsworth, Elma Crawford and Earl Howard.

A social was held by the Woman's Missionary Society Wednesday at Mrs. H. R. Core's in the Eureka neighborhood.

Redland school has the honor of having one of the very few chapters of the National Forensic League. Only those who have won personal honor in declamation or debate are eligible to membership.

Principal Grey and faculty are hard at work trying to rearrange and improve the curriculum of the high school and grammar school departments and provide a curriculum for a junior high school. All grades are practicing on their feature at commencement. The seventh grade is giving a ministrel show, and the fourth and fifth an Indian play.

A weinie and marshmellow roast and over-Sunday party was given by the junior class to the senior class of the high school by Miss Opal and Mary Edith Behrens on the Gould canal and at the Behrens' home in Princeton. The following guests were present: Miss Rossin, Joe Evelyn Lake, Luella Simons, Nandes Simons, Margarete Roberts, Irma Kahl, Viola McCullough, Tessie Kyle, Joan White, Esthie Boerner, Helen Boerner and Sadie Murry.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Ratcliff have moved into the L. L. Chandler cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Chandler have moved into a new home.

LITTLE RIVER

MRS. EMMA C. RADER entertained Circle No. 3 of the Methodist Ladies' Service Guild at her home in Biscayne Heights last week. Those in attendance were Mrs. Zilphia Van Gordon, Mrs. Belle Cadwallader, Mrs. R. D. Chandler, Mrs. A. H. Flowers, Mrs. Emma C. Rader, Mrs. Kate O. Gleason, Mrs. A. J. Rostance, Mrs. L. C. Richardson, Mrs. George C. Thompson, Mary Isabel Thompson, Mrs. J. E. Fields, Mrs. W. D. Newman, Mrs. C. A. Cook and Mrs. Homer E. Buffington.

Mrs. A. H. Flowers will leave soon for Richmond, Va., where she will attend the commencement exercises of the Union Theological Seminary, her son, Norman, being one of the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Shaw left last Tuesday morning for their home at Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw had a pleasant winter with their daughter, Mrs. Russell Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Henry arrived in Little River last Wednesday, coming from Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Ida M. VanDoran has returned to her home at Eaton, Ohio, after spending the season with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Gore and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Finch of N. E. Fifth street, Miami, are spending a few days with the family of Vernon J. Posy.

Mrs. L. L. Gore recently has been appointed deputy district president of the Rebekah lodge.

The North Dixie W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. P. Harvey.

PRINCETON

LAST week the following ladies met with Mrs. L. C. Smith to form an altar society for the Catholic church in Homestead: Mrs. J. R. Daniels, Miss Mary Kelly, Mrs. A. H. Waldin, Mrs. C. H. Hammand, Mrs. F. Carroll, Mrs. Mary Walker, Mrs. H. J. Gilbert, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Barcus. The next meeting will be with Mrs. M. L. Walker.

James Smith, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Smith, is confined to his home with measles.

O. E. Savage is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. Norman Brickner has returned from a short stay in her New York home.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Walker and children motored from Miami last Sunday.

Mrs. C. N. Henderson, Miss Stanford, Mrs. G. D. Barcus and Mrs. Wildman spent last Saturday in Miami.

Mrs. Marie Linbaugh is spending a short time with her parents in Palm Beach.

Mrs. E. Mitchell and children of Yonkers, N. Y., expect to return to their home there within the next month, after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Clarence O. Wood, who will go with her for an indefinite stay.

The Demonstration Club will meet with Mrs. O. Petersen May 11 for an all day session.

Miss Inger Rasmussen left last week for a summer in Denmark. Before her return she will visit the Holy Land.

The Church of God is holding a revival at their tent near the M. E. Church. It is being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Moon.

BREVARD COUNTY TEACHERS ASSEMBLE AT MELBOURNE

Teachers of Brevard county met in session at Melbourne May 1. Educational affairs were discussed at the meeting. Teachers shown in the above photograph are Mrs. Charles W. Owens, W. A. Simmons, Palm Bay; Eva C. Miller, Jessie Stewart, Mrs. M. A. Macy, F. F. Taylor, Katherine Toomey, Principal Dow Gary Beck, Eau Gallie; Mrs. Irene S. Christen, E. H. Miller, A. L. Broyles, principal; M. R. Bliss, Amelia Ballou, Florence Best, Mrs. H. T. Hendricks, Violet Watts, G. McFarland, Nellie L. Newman, Coach J. S. Batey, Bessie Wallace, Mrs. J. M. Thompson, J. Murray Thompson, Ruth Chapman, Lena Bonner, Nellie Tucker, Edna Parker, Caroline Finley, Mary Fuller, Amy Green, Melbourne; Mrs. Mabel G. Hessey, Mainbari Mary Hazlinger, Grant; Minnie May Myers, Ora Newton, Elizabeth Humphries, Maud Arnett, Mrs. A. Maxwell, Mrs. Betty Robinson, Cocoa; C. A. Robinette, John M. Crowell, Mrs. C. M. Burnett, Mrs. K. Birkhart, Mrs. James Howell, Mrs. Lee Cothran, Mrs. Vera C. Hines, Miss Tommie Conway, Mary Pearl Compton, Titusville. Mrs. Alice L. Shelbourne, county superintendent, also was present as was S. S. Lichty, a member of the county school board. Photograph, Murdoch, Melbourne.

FLORIDA CITY

MR. AND MRS. R. L. GRANBERRY are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush of Coral Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Geronomo, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Garpoldt and Thomas Allecci, have left for Stamford, Conn., where they will spend the summer.

Edward Stilling of Florida City, has been chosen as a delegate of the Redlands District Realty Board, to attend the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, which is to be held from June 7 to June 11 in Tulsa, Okla. E. A. Froscher of Homestead, was chosen as alternate delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sabin, who have been spending the winter in Florida City, left Sunday for their home in Detroit, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Sabin were accompanied by Mrs. Sabin's sister, Miss Nina Battle, who has been their guest for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sabin and their two sons will remain and occupy the Sabin residence during the summer.

Miss Ollie Robertson of Coral Gables, was an over Sunday visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hilman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ballard of Redlands, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Kihn entertained last Friday in the honor of Mrs. Louis Schmulling, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. William Geronomo, at her home on Broadway. Mrs. Schmulling left Saturday for New York. Those present were Mrs. Schmulling, the guest of honor; Mrs. William Geronomo and two children, Mrs. William Zebransky and her daughter Alice, Mrs. Charles Sengler, Mrs. Glen Martin, Mrs. B. F. Collier and the hostess, Mrs. Kihn.

Friends in Florida City have received word from Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Lowenthal and Miss Grace Storjahann that they have arrived safely at Hot Springs, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Martin and baby, who have been occupying the Collier cottage on Eighth street for several months, have moved into the Lowenthal home on Eighth street.

Miss Luela Newton of Lake Worth, a former pastor of the Florida City Free Methodist Church, was a visitor in Florida City Tuesday.

J. H. Dixon expects to leave soon for Colorado.

Charles Becker, sr., plans to leave Florida City May 10 for New Mexico.

Mrs. Grace Wagner, county nutrition expert, was a visitor in the Florida City school Wednesday. Mrs. Wagner is planning to organize a club of the ladies of Florida City this summer in which she will give a course of lectures on the care and feeding of children.

OKEECHOBEE

MR. AND MRS. E. H. COMPTON, managers of the Palm Circle Inn at Brighton, were in Okeechobee last Tuesday.

A meeting of the board of directors of the local chamber of commerce was held last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jensen of Appleton, Wis., registered at the local chamber of commerce Tuesday. They were on their way from St. Petersburg to Miami.

Dr. George E. Toomey, lecturer for Boca Raton; Dr. George H. Bradford, lecturer for Hollywood; B. E. Fordham, B. A. Kirkland and B. C. Keefe of Miami, were Okeechobee visitors last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bryson of Fort Pierce were visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Darrow left Monday night for Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipscomb Colhoun and son and Mr. Harris from Miami spent last Sunday here with County Agent Samuel Sherard and family.

M. C. Taft of Haines City, who is routing a bus between that point and the East Coast, had in his party Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Zinn, Mrs. W. D. Thurston of Vero Beach, Senator H. T. Taylor and wife of Vermont, and Mrs. C. A. Cox, Mrs. J. D. Cox, Mrs. E. Hunt and Mrs. G. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mann of Winter Haven passed through Okeechobee Sunday morning on their way to Miami.

W. J. Conners will leave soon for his summer home on Long Island.

Last Friday the grade schools of Okeechobee closed for the year.

Helen Owens, one of the fourth grade teachers here, left last Sunday morning for West Palm Beach.

R. Y. Patterson spent Friday in West Palm Beach.

Mrs. M. R. Champlin spent over Sunday with her son in Miami.

WEST PALM BEACH

MORE than usual interest attends the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Green of Waynesboro, Ga., and George Fryhoffer of this city, which took place May 1 at noon in Holy Trinity Church, with the Rev. Frank Johnson officiating. Attending the ceremony were only a few friends of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Morrison, Mrs. Margaret Kennedy of Atlanta, and Miss Olive Grimes, the bride's partner in real estate business. Miss Green, while recently in the real estate business, achieved a reputation as a teacher in Kelsey City that was unusual in school history. Mr. Fryhoffer, who was associated with Northwood since its early days, also has been head of the sales department of the Mizner Development Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fryhoffer have gone to Georgia on a wedding trip. They will make their home here and will go on a more extensive journey later in the summer.

Mrs. George N. Hatch and Miss Emilie Keyes were hostesses at the May Day luncheon, honoring Miss May Carroll who will be married June 1 to Robert Stuart of Coral Gables at her parents' home in Monticello, Fla. Tables were spread on the upper deck of the houseboat restaurant, Clavos. Out of a lovely bouquet the honoree was showered with dainty handkerchiefs. Miss Carroll is a niece of Mrs. Hatch and cousin of Miss Keyes.

A May Day breakfast was served on the grounds at the Y. W. C. A. on Gardenia street, being arranged by the activities committee of which Miss Lela Langford is chairman.

The Areme Circle is a new group of Eastern Star women who will continue card parties at the Palm Beach Shrine club house until late July.

As an original manner of entertaining in honor of Miss Lucille McConnell and Francis Klicker, whose marriage soon will take place, Misses Gertrude and Elsie Causler featured a "womanless wedding" at their home in Fernwood. The parts in the wedding party were taken by George Hoyt, Elwyn Burgiss, Cecil Womble, Edward Thomas, William Causler, Fred Fitton, Lloyd Bell, Jack Causler, Arthur Fitton, Ernest Winny and Porter Taylor. Miss McConnell and Mr. Klicker were surprised at the close of the mock wedding when they, instead of the bridal couple of the playlet, received the gifts displayed.

Mrs. F. H. Brown, who is leaving soon for San Diego, Calif., was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. C. Wagen.

Mrs. L. E. Fitzgerald entertained at a dinner party at the Fitzgerald home on N. Olive street, celebrating the birthday of Mr. Fitzgerald and her own relative, B. Estright. Guests were Miss Gladys Maher, Miss Peggy De Fresne, Mrs. John Deyo, Miss Thekla Witchtendahl, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bronninger, Leo Fitzgerald, Thomas Malloy and Vincent Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Dillon have gone to Thomasville, Ga., to spend part of May.

The South Side Club has closed its bridge season, as some of the members already are out of town and others soon will start North. The final meeting was held with Mrs. H. Phil Bryan and in the party were Mrs. B. A. Maxfield, Mrs. James Whitting, Mrs. B. J. Carlberg, Mrs. R. L. McCarley, Mrs. Vincent Oaksmith, Mrs. Alfred H. Wagg, Mrs. D. Forrest Dunkle, Mrs. J. A. Edwards and Mrs. F. A. Gutelius.

Mrs. Calvin Campbell recently entertained the Worth While Club at her home on Florida avenue.

INDRIO

MRS. A. I. SMALLEY and Mrs. George McGuigan were recent shoppers in Fort Pierce.

John Helseth has returned from Coconut Grove where he had spent vthe past several months erecting a home for his daughter, Mrs. A. L. Isaac.

J. E. Bailey and sister, Mrs. D. G. Fury, were among those attending the junior carnival in Fort Pierce last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lennard attended the party given by the Rebekah lodge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ordway in Fort Pierce last week.

Miss Elene Lymber has returned to her home in New York City after spending the winter here, the guest of her cousin, Miss Russos.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Helseth and children motored to Palm Beach, Lake Worth and Kelsey City Wednesday.

Mrs. R. W. Lennard was shopping in Fort Pierce last Friday.

Mrs. Fullen, Miss Barbara Kline, Mrs. McLaughlin and daughter were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Maclary at White City.

Last Saturday a party of local people enjoyed a picnic at the Indrio dock on Indian river. Swimming and fishing were features of the day, and a picnic dinner was served. Those enjoying the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Helseth and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Helseth and daughter, Thurley, Mrs. D. G. Fury and daughter, Ruth, Miss Mildred Negus, Willis Negus, Mrs. Warren Preston and sons Henry and Homer, and J. H. Shiland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith spent last Sunday in White City where they visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Maclary and Mr. and Mrs. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Knapp, former winter residents of St. Lucie, who have spent the past winter at Hollywood, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith.

Mrs. Lindsey Stead was shopping in Fort Pierce last Tuesday.

J. E. Bailey was a business visitor to Fort Pierce last Tuesday. The children celebrated May Day with appropriate exercises at school.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Helseth, son, Perry, and daughters Marie and Alfreida, of Oslo, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Helseth last Sunday.

The Woman's Club held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. A. R. Helseth last Wednesday afternoon for the election of officers for the incoming year. Those elected were Mrs. R. W. Lennard, president, Mrs. Harvey Zuver, vice president, Mrs. George McGuigan, secretary and Mrs. C. R. Negus, treasurer.

Miss Margaret Gladwin was among the shoppers in Fort Pierce last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lennard attended the joint meeting of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Fort Pierce last Monday evening.

C. R. Negus has been called to New York on account of the death of his sister.

COCOA

LADIES of the Women's Missionary Societies of the First Methodist Church gave a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Johnson Tuesday evening in honor of the new members of the church. The home had been artistically decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. James M. Carson of Miami was a visitor in Cocoa last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Field enjoyed a motor trip to Lake Wales, Okeechobee, Palm Beach and other cities recently.

John Banks, jr., of Miami, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Allen of Valencia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Palmer of Rockledge, accompanied by Mrs. U. Z. Gillis, have gone to Madison, Ohio, where they will spend the summer months.

Mary Campbell has returned from a trip to Miami. Accompanying her home was her sister, Mrs. Dan Saul.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Baldwin and F. B. Stamm have just returned from a 10-day trip to Cuba.

Edward Donley has returned after a short business trip to Providence, R. I.

Mrs. B. W. Brown, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Ellison during the winter, has returned to her home in Delaware, Ohio.

Mrs. S. Willsie and granddaughter, Dorothy, of White Plains, N. Y., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bettler at their home, Paradise Grove, Rockledge.

Mrs. Aaron Taylor, after spending some time with her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Cole, has returned to her home in Shiloh.

William Fisher spent last Sunday in Cocoa.

Bess Nash and Marie Law were recent guests of Margaret Hatch at Artesia.

Mrs. J. W. Coe and daughter, Pricilla, and Lucy Phillips are guests of the former's son, John Coe, at Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Greer, accompanied by Leon McKenzie, have left for their home in New Haven, Conn., after spending the winter in Rockledge.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Grosse have gone to Waynesville, N. C., for a few days on business and pleasure.

Nona Burns is visiting in Jacksonville prior to going to Tallahassee, where she will make her future home.

Marie Myers, after spending the winter in Cocoa with her parents, has gone to Huntington, W. Va., for the summer.

J. G. Peck and C. L. Porter have returned from a business trip to Tampa.

Margaret Melton of Melbourne spent last Sunday with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Ford.

E. N. Upshaw of Atlanta, Ga., has been in Cocoa several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McKinney spent last Sunday in Cocoa on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grier, who spent the winter in Rockledge, expect to sail for Europe about June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bushnell, who spent the season in Cocoa, have returned to their home in Chittenago, N. Y.

Francis McFarland, well-known local boy, has recently been appointed pilot for the Curtis Aeroplane Company. Mr. McFarland served his apprenticeship with Lieutenant Smith, one of the most able aviators in America.

John Berger, well-known carpenter of this city, and Carrie Barcal of Nashville, Tenn., were married in the office of Judge Norman L. Botsford in Titusville last Monday.

James Atkinson and Hilda Brink, both of Cocoa, also were married in Titusville on the same day. Both of the young people are well known in Cocoa, the bride growing to young womanhood here.

Mrs. Frank Beatty and Ruby Love motored to Miami Friday, returning Sunday, Mrs. Love accompanying them home. Mrs. Love and Mrs. Beatty were guests of their mother, Mrs. Griffis.

Alma Campbell of New Orleans has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Campbell, having been called here on account of the serious illness of her mother.

The last meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. McLeod on Valencia, Tuesday, May 4. It was the guest night meeting of the club, and a special program was given.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parnell have returned from Bell, where they had been at the bedside of Mr. Parnell's father.

Nora Wells was the guest of honor at a pretty miscellaneous shower given at the home of Nona Burns Thursday. After several contests, the bride-elect was presented with a beautifully-decorated parasol filled with parcels. Refreshments of cupid salad, cake and coffee were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Montgomery of Charlestown, W. Va., are spending the week in Cocoa before returning to their home in the North.

Thomas H. Williams of Maywood, N. J., is spending several days in Cocoa on business prior to returning to his Northern home.

K. H. Barrows is spending some time in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Orville Stillman of Westerly, R. I., is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Stillman, at the Highland Court Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Wilson have returned from a combined pleasure and business trip to Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McDonnell have as their guest Mrs. John D. Gun and baby of Cuthbert, Ga.

Robert King and George Stetson have returned from a week's trip to Havana, Cuba.

Indian River post, No. 22, of the American Legion had a large attendance at the Daytona Beach convention. Cocoa's municipal band accompanied the post members to the convention.

Edwin B. Stillman left Wednesday morning for a short business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Edwards and son, James, who have spent the winter in Atlanta, are in Cocoa, coming down to attend the May Day celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam O'Brien and daughter, Aileen, of Daytona Beach spent May Day in Cocoa.

Mary Joyner of Daytona Beach was a recent guest of her mother and sister, Mrs. Minnie Joyner and Mrs. McLean Cunningham.

Miss Bobbie Harris of Eau Gallie was the guest of Martha Campbell recently.

E. C. Bennett and Lane Mashburn motored to Douglas, Ga., Sunday. Returning with them was Mrs. E. C. Bennett, who has been a guest of her mother.

W. D. Fagan, sr., has returned to West Palm Beach after a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Albert E. Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cain are moving to the home formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cunningham on North street.

Altha Daniels of Melbourne, spent last Sunday in Cocoa, guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Lemon Daniels.