SOCIAL NEWS OF SOUTHEASTERN FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA

DR. J. A. ROGERS and family left Tuesday in their motor car for Hendersonville and other cities in North Carolina, where they will spend several weeks.

Willis Settle and George Lipscomb left Sunday in the former's motor car for a two weeks' trip to Hendersonville, N. C.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Quest, Saturday, a son.

Misses Ruth and Levinia Riley left Saturday for Hendersonville, N. C., and Atlanta, Ga., where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. M. A. Hutto and children returned Saturday from a trip to Charleston, S. C., where they spent several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Patch left Sunday for a motor trip to Maine.

A. R. Wilkinson and son, Playter, have gone to Hendersonville, N. C., where they joined Mrs. Wilkinson and Gladys, who have been there a month.

The Royal Neighbors entertained with a surprise party Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. M. Moore, who is one of their members. After a pleasant social hour, refreshments of sandwiches, cake and ice tea were served by Mrs. Opal Wood and Miss Lillie Manning. The lodge deputy, Mrs. R. Rich of Bunnell, was a guest. The following members attended, Mrs. M. Moore, Mrs. Opal Wood, Mrs. L. Rich, Mrs. A. D. Fussel, Mrs. D. E. McCaskill, Mrs. W. J. Griffen, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. R. A. Lewis, Mrs. G. W. Martin, Mrs. W. H. Woodward, Mrs. D. W. Clifton, Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Misses Lillie Maning, Eula Woodward, and Hazel Clifton.

Katherine Norman left Monday with the Newall family for Cloudland, Ga., where she will spend several weeks visiting Susie Mae Hayes.

Mrs. Eliza Woodward returned Monday from a week's stay in Pierson.

Miss Alice Reed returned Sunday from Gainesville, where she attended summer school.

Mrs. A. M. Yarbrough and Valerie, and Myrtle Dishonnet spent last Sunday in St. Augustine.

Chesley Athern returned Saturday from a month's stay in New York, Ohio, and Chattanooga, Tenn. At the latter place he visited his brother Robert, who is in Y. M. C. A. work there.

Mrs. E. E. Eamer and Opal, Mrs. Julian Sams, Mrs. George Abbot and Katherine Norman spent Saturday in Orlando.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Lopez, Leola and Ivan, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reilly and two children, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Usina and children, Misses Lizzie Nordsman, Myrtle Fussel, Lillian Johnson, and Frank and Al Nordaman and Paul Lacy formed a party spending the day at Silver Springs last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keyser and son, Charles, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Broh of Elyria, Ohio, stopped off here Monday on their way to Fort Lauderdale, where they will locate permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atkins and daughter, Maurine, returned the latter part of the week from a lengthy stay in Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Julia Ashton left Monday for Chattanooga, Tenn., accompanying her son William Ashton and family on a motor trip. They expect to be away a month.

C. G. Hazlewood and three children and the former's sister, Mrs. Evans, left Saturday for a visit with relatives in Alabama.

E. Johnston and family moved last week to South Jacksonville, where they will reside permanently.

Mrs. H. A. Jernigan spent Monday in Jacksonville.

Mrs. E. N. Holley plans leaving the last of this week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Nathan Marshall, in Fort Worth, Tex. Her little grandson, James White, will accompany her on the trip.

R. L. Montaigne went to St. Augustine Tuesday for medical treatment in the Florida East Coast Hospital.

Dr. W. C. Chowning left Tuesday for Virginia, where he will visit his father. He will also stop in Baltimore, Md., before his return home.

Mrs. J. R. Mathews, Bernard and Jeanette returned Wednesday from a week's visit to the former's brother in West Palm Beach.

R. W. Blount was a week-end visitor to his brother, Ed Blount, in Tampa. Mrs. E. E. Burke has gone South to visit her husband.

Miss Myrtle Dishonnett has resumed her position with J. Tom Smith's after a month's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Anders and small daughter left Thursday in their motor car for a visit to relatives in Kelly, N. C. Little Helen Anders went last Saturday with her aunt, Miss Fatima Anders, who had been here on an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cunningham and Mrs. George Reed and daughter, Helen Grace, spent Monday in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Cora Wilson, Miss Lillian McDonald and Jack Sweet plan leaving the last of the week for the mountains of North Carolina, where they will join Mrs. Jack Sweet. Francis Wilson expects to join them in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Law and daughter, Ethel, of Lakeland, are spending two weeks at the home of Mrs. Law's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Chalker.

J. H. Johnston and two daughters, Lillian and Thelma, left Tuesday for cities in North and South Carolina, where they will spend about 10 days.

Mrs. Bertha Brown and three children of Ormond, are spending the week with the former's mother, Mrs. J. H. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Williams motored to Sanford last Sunday.

Dr. J. H. Johnson returned home the latter part of last week from Rochester, Minn., where he has been taking post graduate work at Mayo Brothers Hospital.

Charles Whitford returned Wednesday from a business trip to West Palm Beach and Miami.

Mrs. George Ott was a visitor in Deland Monday.

G. A. Osteon is expected to return home the latter part of the week from Rochester, Minn., where he has been taking treatments for a number of weeks. He is spending a few days in Chicago prior to his return home.

Mrs. J. F. Tatum and children are visiting Mrs. Tatum's relatives in Plant City, where they expect to be about three weeks.

Edward A. Stoll and family motored to Arcadia for last week's end. They will return by way of Lake City and St. Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sanders went to St. Augustine Wednesday for a stay of several days.

Mrs. J. D. Wolfe and mother, Mrs. F. A. Wiggins, returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Griffin and children, Stanley and Joyce, and Mrs. Griffin's father, Mr. Vick, of Orlando, spent Sunday here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robinson returned Tuesday from Jacksonville, where they moved several months ago, and will reside here permanently.

ATTRACTIVE RESIDENT OF LAKE WORTH

Jonline Schroeder is just one of the many beautiful girls Lake Worth boasts of. She is very popular among the younger set of the city.—Photograph by Weston Studio.

DELRAY

MRS. J. F. WILSON and daughter, Frances Murray, have returned to their home in Lakeland after a visit to Mrs. Wilson's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Cason. They were accompanied by Miss Claribel Cason.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Evans and daughters, Aubrey Frances and Jean, have returned from a visit to relatives in Live Oak and Jacksonville.

F. J. Schrader has returned home on a short business trip and will go North again soon to join his wife at their summer home which he has recently bought near Buffalo, N. Y.

Glenn Sundy and Fred Scott have returned after an extensive tour through the country with their Lincoln sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jones of Columbus, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Jones' aunt, Mrs. J. C. Keen.

Mrs. H. Haild Zeder left Friday for a visit to Virginia and Michigan. Miss Nellie Fisk, of Washington, D. C., arrived Tuesday to visit relatives here and at Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barwick and children are spending some time in the mountains of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dozier and children of Nashville, Tenn., will arrive about September 1 to spend the season in their cottage on Atlantic avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jelks have returned from a visit to their relatives in Hawkinsville, Ga., but will go again as soon as Mrs. Jelks is able to travel.

Elmer Winn and Oscar Winn of Clarksville, Tenn., and Dr. James Winn of Nashville, Tenn., were here last week and invested in some property. Oscar Winn bought an attractive home in Belleview Court, and probably will spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Milam and little daughter, Harrietta, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests of the Seacrest Hotel at Delray Beach.

Mrs. R. C. Keen and little daughter, Eugenia, who have been visiting her son, J. C. Keen, have gone to Miami for a short visit. She will return soon to spend the rest of the summer here.

Matt Gracey returned home last week from Clarksville, Tenn., accompanied by several of Clarksville's prominent men. Among them were Messrs. Quarles, Cook, Emmett, Ladd and Hoswick.

Mrs. J. R. Cason, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Evans and children, and L. E. Ranson left Thursday by motor car for Indian Springs, Ga., and thence to Hendersonville, N. C. They will be gone until about September 1.

E. W. Driskell and C. Kelly Martin of Selma, Ala., were business visitors here Tuesday.

A. W. Daugherty of Allentown, Ga., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keen Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Virgin of Macon, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Grimes of St. Augustine, were visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williams and children left Thursday for Daytona, where Mr. Williams will attend a lumbermen's convention. He will later go to other points on the West Coast to visit relatives.

W. C. Briggs, who has been a guest at the Seacrest Hotel for the past week, was called to his home in Olcott, N. Y., Tuesday on account of the serious illness of his wife.

Mrs. C. H. Diggans, who came here to attend the Barnes-Diggans wedding, has returned to her home in Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Clyde Smith has resigned her position with the Delray Bank & Trust Company, where she has served in the capacity of bookkeeper for the past five years. She will enter the real estate business with her husband. As a token of the high esteem in which Mrs. Smith is held by the officials of the bank, she was presented with a beautiful wrist watch.

Mrs. A. M. Rutledge of Center Hill, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Godbold.

N. R. Hutchinson of Carrsville, Ky., has accepted the position as bookkeeper of the Delray Bank & Trust Company.

A. J. Adams and Arthur Endsley are enjoying a 10-day trip to New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart, Miss Ruth Stuart and Miss Lyde, of Arkadelphia, Ark., have returned to their home after a few days' visit here.

Miss Loreen Henderson of Atlanta, Ga., is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Rawls.

KEY WEST

MRS. KATHRYN ROBERTS and daughter Francella of Miami are here visiting relatives. Mrs. Roberts and Miss Roberts were accompanied by Mrs. Mary E. Chapman, who came here to visit her father, Henry Bush, and her brother, Ray G. Bush. Mrs. Chapman has returned to Miami.

Moonlight swimming was popular here during the early part of the week. Many persons enjoyed bathing off the Fort Taylor reservation, the Key West Athletic Club house and La Borna baths.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beecaise and daughter, who has been visiting relatives in this city, returned Tuesday to their home in Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Beecaise formerly resided here.

Jefferson B. Browne, judge of the new Circuit Court for this district, returned Tuesday from Portland, Ore., where he attended the Elks' convention. On his way back Judge Brown stopped two days in Jacksonville.

Joseph G. Marucci of William street is in Miami on a business visit.

Theodore E. J. Roberts of Eaton and Margaret streets has returned from a short visit to Key Largo.

Richard Tedder of Ashe street, who is visiting a daughter in Islamorada, is expected to return here Monday.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Allan B. Clearce, Palm avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Cornelius D. Kemp of Simonton street sailed Tuesday for New York, from which city they will go to Connecticut and Massachusetts to visit friends.

Horatio Saunders, who had been here visiting relatives, returned on Tuesday to Miami.

J. Aronovitz of Duval and Southard streets, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit in Tampa.

Miss Julia Sawyer left Tuesday for Miami, where she will visit relatives a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Jenkins Curry of Eaton street were visiting in Miami last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gernacy of Grove Park, Miami, are expected to arrive here Monday for a short visit.

William R. Porter, president of the First National Bank, left Tuesday evening for New York, where he joined Mrs. Porter. Before returning home they will visit in Washington, D. C.

L. A. Sweeting, who has been here visiting relatives, sailed Tuesday evening for his home in Tampa.

Mrs. T. W. Albury and children returned Tuesday to Miami, following a stay here with relatives.

Emory Montecini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Montecini of Margaret street, returned Tuesday from Georgia, where he had been attending a citizens' military training camp.

J. E. McDermott of Tampa is here visiting relatives.

William Cates, manager of the Key West Investment Company, visited in Tampa last week.

Mrs. D. Borden and children of Eaton street, left Monday for Miami to visit relatives.

Mrs. Edward Tynes left Monday for Miami to visit several weks.

Mrs. Daniel Knowes, accompanied by her son Ray, left Tuesday for Hollywood to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles L. Knowles, who had been here several weeks visiting relatives, left Monday for Miami to join Mr. Knowles.

John W. McWhorter, well known in various parts of Florida as a newspaper man, has come here to make his home. He is residing in a bungalow near the South Beach.

Mrs. Samuel Bethel left Monday for Miami to visit relatives.

Mrs. Walter P. Curry and daughter left Tuesday for St. Augustine, where they are guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Fogarty.

Mrs. Joseph Whalton, jr., of Margaret street, left Tuesday for Hendersonville, N. C., to spend several weeks with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson.

FORT LAUDERDALE

H. C. Morford has returned to Fort Lauderdale after enjoying a visit with relatives in New Jersey.

Norman Clifton of Daytona, and O. H. Brown of Lakeland, L. B. Rumph of Martinsville, Ga., J. L. Warren and W. H. Chambers, of Enterprise, Ala., were among recent business visitors in the city.

SEBRING

A COMPANY of girls spent Monday night in camp at the Tu-Lip-T Room, with Mrs. W. B. Leatherman as chaperone. The affair was given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Riley of Boca Grande, and Miss Doris Bartlett of Winter Haven, who are guests in the city. Supper was served camp style, and the evening was delightfully spent swimming and sitting around the camp fire. After an early morning dip and breakfast on the beach, they returned to their homes in this city. Those who enjoyed this party were Miss Emilie Ausland, Miss Anna Bogle, Miss Mary Bogle, Miss Nina Brunk, Miss Helen Moyer, Miss Ruth Ingle, Miss Myrtle Jack, Miss Lucille Christy, Miss Charlotte Varena, Miss Espage Rogers, and the honor guests, Miss Bartlett and Miss Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith of Wauchula, who are spending a few days at their shore home, Cherokee Lodge, on Lake Jackson, entertained a company of young people with a swimming party and dinner. Those who enjoyed this event were Miss Brownie Smith, Miss Melissa Smith, Miss Rosemary Graham, Bill Holland, Pete Coxey, O. J. Seawell, John B. Sloan and Graham Smith.

Miss Elizabeth Riley of Boca Grande, is the house guest of Miss Emilie Ausland of this city.

Master Burwell Green celebrated his fifth birthday Friday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Green, on Pine street, with a party. The afternoon was delightfully spent in swimming. Later the children toasted marshmallows over a fire, and were served dainty refreshments. The small host received many lovely gifts in honor of the occasion. Those who were present were Myrtle Barwick, Florence Jane Cope, Pearl Cash, Louise Cash, Paul Rogers, Billy Horn, Charles Rippberger, Paul Rippberger, jr., Edgar Lee Green and Ryherd Green.

Miss Ella Mae Luckie entertained a company of friends in honor of her house guest, Miss Lillian Creig of Winter Haven. After a delightful swim at the beach, the girls returned to the Luckie home on Lime street, where refreshments were served on the lawn. After a pleasant social hour, the guests departed for their homes. Those present were Grace Brown, Muriel Nelson, Rachel Blythe, Eva Butts, Marian Butts, Dorothy Horn, Phyllis Vance, and the honoree, Miss Lillian Creig.

Miss Doris Bartlett of Winter Haven, who is the house guest of Miss Ava Leatherman of this city, was complimented with a dinner party Monday evening at the Nan-ces-o-wee Hotel. The guests were Miss Ava Leatherman, Miss Espage Rogers and Miss Mary Evelyn Rogers.

Miss Emilie Ausland and Miss Ava Leatherman motored to Arcadia and Punta Gorda Saturday. Miss Elizabeth Riley of Boca Grande, returned with them, and is the guest of Miss Ausland at the Buckeye Inn.

Miss June Reynalds entertained a company of young people with a wiener roast on the lake shore Tuesday night. A big camp fire was the center of attraction where wieners and marshmallows were roasted. The party spent the evening singing and telling stories, returning to the city at a late hour. Mrs. Sidney MacDonald was the chaperone, the guests being, Miss Betty Perrine, Miss Louise Hilley, Miss Alma Spradley, Harry Nye, Ed Rally, Lisle White, Bob Sparks, Leo Vigeant and Bill Allen.

Mrs. Ruth Whitley left Tuesday for Marion, S. C., where she will join Miss Annie Laurie Whitley, visiting Mrs. L. McElroy for a month.

Mrs. Sidney MacDonald and Mrs. Ruth Whitley returned to Sebring Saturday after a week's visit in Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peterson of Orlando, have arrived in this city to make their home, and to take possession of the Circle Cafe which they bought recently. They have also bought a home on Pine street.

Miss Edna Goodrich and Mrs. Cora Bellenot who are compiling the hotel directory for the city, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in this city.

A. J. Vance transacted business in Arcadia Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wooten of Bartow, were here on business Monday. They are former Sebring residents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Young and Arthur Young, jr., are visiting friends and relatives in Scranton, Pa.

Dr. J. L. Walkup has returned to Sebring after a delightful summer spent in Iowa, Illinois, Mississippi and other points of interest. He will commence the erection of a home immediately. Dr. M. B. Walkup is still visiting her relatives in Mississippi, but will return in six weeks.

The Rev. W. H. McLeod, formerly of Sebring, now of Tampa, transacted business in this city Tuesday night.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Marion Nige of Mobile, Ala., were guests in this city for several days on their way to Miami. They were charmed with Sebring, and will return again on their way back.

G. B. Sawyers of Jacksonville, of the G. B. Sawyers Company, spent Tuesday in this city conferring with the city council concerning the sale of the improvement bonds recently voted by the city.

B. C. Johnson, jr., of Memphis, Tenn., who came several weeks ago to be the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. George B. Wilson, was suddenly stricken with appendicitis last Thursday and rushed to Lakeland to the hospital, where Dr. W. J. Davis of this city operated. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson who is still with him.

W. E. Aycock of Moultrie, Ga., was a guest in Sebring, Tuesday, calling on his friends, George Kline and John Greer.

A. L. Cooke of Melbourne, was a Sebring visitor last Saturday and Sunday. He was, until recently, a resident of this city.

L. B. Taylor of Tampa, a member of the Lakeview Place Corporation, was a guest of C. T. Nelson of this city, Saturday.

Miss Lucille Christy, who has been on an extended visit in Jacksonville with her sister, Mrs. William Hughs Chandler, returned Thursday to her home in this city.

Mrs. E. C. Wright of this city, and Mrs. H. W. Kirby of DeSoto City, motored to Avon Park, Monday.

Mrs. J. P. Ahlers is enjoying an extended visit in Louisiana.

H. O. Sebring, jr., and Ford Hoacock left Saturday by motor car for Asheville, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hoacock for a vacation visit.

Hubert Rawls, an attorney of Macon, Ga., arrived last week to make his home in this city. He will be joined later by Mrs. Rawls and their three daughters. Mr. Rawls has joined the law firm of Lawrence and Walker.

J. J. Dorman of Ocilla, president of the First National Bank of that city, and John Wells, also of Ocilla, were the guests of C. T. Weaver of this city.

MIMS

MR. AND MRS. JAMES WALKER and baby and Mrs. Walker's sister, Miss Annie Lee McDonald, will leave soon for a week's visit with relatives in Fitzgerald, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brehaut left Sunday by automobile to spend a few months at their former home in Toledo, Ohio. It has been their custom to go North earlier in the summer, but because of business they were delayed. H. M. Stanley will have charge of their lunch stand at Burkholm during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Davies of North Mims were visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. F. De Witt Taylor of Shiloh visited her sister, Miss Eva Kyzer, several days last week.

Mrs. T. A. Apple, Mrs. T. D. Taylor, Miss Lillie and Eva Kyser, Corinne Morey, Ida Stewart and Melba Andrews were shopping in Titusville Tuesday.

A. B. Tull of Titusville was a business visitor here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Marr and little daughter, Margaret, left Thursday for a week's vacation. They will visit Mrs. Marr's relatives in Lexington, S. C., and then will go to Cleveland, Ohio, to visit some relatives.

Misses Eva Kyzer, Courtney Nicholson and Truman Taylor joined a large party from Shiloh Sunday and all went to De Leon Springs for the day.

Mrs. T. D. Taylor and Miss Eva Kyzer were shopping in Titusville Wednesday.

Julian Kaiser and sister-in-law, Mrs. W. A. Sykes, and three children, are visiting at the latter's home in Cobbtown, Ga. Mrs. Julian Kaiser, who has been visiting her parents for several months, will return home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Loeter left Monday by automobile to spend a few months visiting in Ohio and New Jersey.

Earl Roof, J. Z. Kyzer and Miss Lillie Kyzer left Sunday morning by automobile to visit relatives in Columbia and Leesville, S. C. Mrs. J. Z. Kyzer, who went to Leesville, two weeks ago to visit her parents, will return home with them this week.

Mrs. Clara Welch of Melbourne and Mrs. A. Strickland of Cocoa visited Mrs. Lillian R. Britton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Ramage and three children of Titusville were calling on Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cushman and child of Titusville were callers here Thursday.

Mrs. P. T. Stanley entertained at dinner Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Baggett, Edward Baggett, Miss Evelyn Baggett and Miss Lizzie Gerders, the occasion being Mr. Stanley's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Mansfield and nieces of Titusville were transacting business here Friday.

The many friends of Mrs. Earl Duff will be glad to know that at this writing she is improving after a serious accident by running a sewing needle in her hand.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brehaut of Burkholm were here Thursday.

S. P. Grube, Mrs. F. W. Morrell and Vivian Radford spent Tuesday in Orlando.

Eleanor Green was invited to celebrate her birthday at a dinner party at Florence Blair's home last Friday. Others present were Ethel Morrell, Virginia Green and Barbara Jones.

P. W. Roberts of district No. 5 attended the county commissioners' meeting in Titusville Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. J. Parrish and George G. Brockett of Titusville were transacting business here last week.

Mrs. Lillian R. Britton left Thursday for Jacksonville. There she will join a state party of 50 Eastern Star members and proceed in a special Pullman to Washington, D. C., where they will spend half a day sightseeing. On Saturday evening the Florida party and a delegation from four other Atlantic states will board the "Franz special" for Toronto, Canada, to attend the eighteenth triennial assembly of the general grand chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, which convenes August 9-15. Mrs. Britton will not return home with the Florida delegation, but will visit her sister, Mrs. Mabel A. McCoy, in Cazenovia, N. Y.

Francis Nicholson, who has been spending a 10-day vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nicholson, returned to Dania last Monday. He was accompanied by his mother and sister, Miss Courtney, and his aunt, Miss Lillian Rauderson, who went on to Miami and spent a few days sightseeing.

Herbert Young of Titusville and Russell Sparks of Orlando were here Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Draa of Sanford spent Tuesday here, Mr. Draa coming to make up his monthly report for the post office. He is hoping to be relieved as postmaster in the near future.

H. A. Nicholson and daughter, Courtney, motored to Sanford Thursday.

W. A. Green returned Tuesday from a 10-day stay in Jacksonville with relatives.

K. J. McCarta and family are now occupying one of the McCullough bungalows.

Sarah Selina Roberts spent a few days last week in Titusville with her cousin, Betty Spell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nicholson, Miss Courtney Nicholson, J. K. Nicholson and Miss Lillian Rauderson were a congenial party spending Monday in Daytona with Mr. Nicholson's brother, Oscar Nicholso, and family.

Mrs. Grace Morgan and daughter, Mrs. Annie M. Locke of Titusville, were visitors here Tuesday evening.

J. J. Gibbs and family have returned from a four months' stay at their former home in Rebecca, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Burreson were transacting business in Titusville Saturday.

The Rev. A. A. Godfrey of Benson Springs was the guest of Mrs. Selina Roberts Sunday and Monday.

P. W. Roberts and family were in Edgewater Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Herminghaus were in Titusville Saturday.

Miss Courtney Nicholson will return to St. Augustine Thursday after a three weeks' visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Baggett were transacting business in Titusville Monday.

Mrs. Alois Prothman and two children came home from Deer Park Sunday and returned on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Vining and little Francis and Mrs. Higdon Bevil spent Saturday in Orlando.

Dan Bevil and son of Valdosta, Ga., have returned home after a visit with his parents. His brother, Mitchell, went home with him to drive his motor car.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cooke and two little children returned home Friday night from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Oliver Smoak, at Pompano.

ANOTHER PRETTY LAKE WORTH GIRL

Miss Ethel King is a charming resident of the Wonder City and is prominent in the social activities there.—Photograph by Weston Studio.

SALERNO

JOHN LUCKERT and Jean Turner spent Thursday evening at the dance in Fort Pierce.

Miss Betty Wilbar and Miss Oma Vincen, with Miss Mildred Pank, spent the week-end in Fort Pierce as the guests of Mrs. E. Pank.

Miss Genevive McCallum spent last week in Miami visiting her cousin, Miss Jennie Johnston.

Mrs. J. D. Turner and son, J. D. jr., returned Thursday from Williston, where they have been visiting relatives for the past month.

The Misses Mary and Malissa Church, accompanied by Charli Church, spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman and daughter of Graham, Ky., arrived in Salerno Friday and are visiting at the home of Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Earle. Mr. Coleman is interested in locating in Florida.

The firm of Chandler & Turner realtors, moved into their new office Monday.

Miss Helen Julius of Fort Pierce, spent last week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. Wilbar.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burnham and C. W. Bowman spent last week-end in Orlando at Lake Mary, with Mrs. C. W. Bowman and Mrs. Charles Stockley.

A number of local people spent last Sunday at Arnold's Island as the guests of J. W. Quigley. Among those who enjoyed the trip to the island were, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Quigley and infant daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLoach and family, and Ada, Alice and George Brewplee.

Ernest Church, accompanied by George and Harvey Shelton, spent last Sunday in Fort Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCullers, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCullers and baby, with Mr. and Mrs. Levi McCullers, all from Quay, spent Sunday afternoon visiting at the home of A. L. Church and family.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson of Willston, who has been visiting Miss Hazel Turner, left Sunday night for Lake Worth, where she will visit her sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones returned last Saturday from an automobile tour of the central states, going as far North as Wisconsin. They have been gone since April.

OKEECHOBEE

MAYOR TOM CONOLY, jr., left last Monday for north Florida cities on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Simmons returned last week form the mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee.

Mrs. Van Pell returned Sunday from a visit with friends in Sanford, Ovied and Orlando.

Mr. Van Pell returned last Sunday night from an extensive trip to northern and far western states. In Minnesota he visited his old home town, through which a tornado had passed recently. He arrived in Santa Barbara, Calif., shortly after the earthquake there.

Cornelius Van Pell has been awarded an honorary scholarship in Rollins College, and will enter that institution this fall. He graduated from the Okeechobee High School last June.

Capt. William Knight was a week-end visitor to Kenansville.

D. R. McNeill expects to leave Friday for Richmond and Craig Healing Springs, Va. At Richmond he will undergo medical treatment and from there he will go to Craig Springs for three or four weeks for rest and recuperation.

Miss Josie Parrish left Monday for Blowing Rock, N. C., where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffis, accompanied by J. W. Griffis, of Fort Myers, visited Miami over last week-end.

O. B. Bowen, assistant cashier of the Peoples' Bank, was a business visitor to Jacksonville last Monday.

Miss Evelyn O'Quinn has accepted a position as teller in the Peoples' Bank.

Friday night a farewell party was tendered Miss Annie May Hawkins on the eve of her return home to Mulberry. A large number of young people were present.

Mrs. W. G. Stevall and Mrs. Blakley are visiting friends in Sarasota for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Underhill and Miss May Pearce were visitors to West Palm Beach Tuesday.

FORT LAUDERDALE

MRS. C. D. KITTREDGE and two daughters, Mary and Ruth, left Thursday for Hendersonville, N. C., where they will remain until about September 15.

Mrs. Victor Head and daughter, and Mrs. Osceola Kyle of Decatur, Ala., were guests during the past week of Mrs. John Grant and Mrs. E. J. Cabot.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Jones and son, Phil, left Tuesday on a two weeks' automobile tour of the state.

Drs. Marion Stranahan and Mattie Green left Monday by automobile for Philadelphia, where they will spend a year as internes in the Woman's hospital there. They were guests of Dr. Stranahan's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Stranahan, while in Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dwinnell and children are recent arrivals in the city, coming from Oklahoma City. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bivans and plan to make their home in Fort Lauderdale. Mr. Dwinnell is associated with the Bivans Lumber Company.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cromer of Pittsburgh, were recent guests in the city.

B. M. English and son of Centralia, Ill., spent several days in the city last week. They were guests at the Broward Hotel while here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wingate and family have gone to Yule, Fla., where they will visit relatives. They will return to Fort Lauderdale in September.

Mrs. Lucian Craig, Mrs. William Rainey, and Mrs. Julian Clements spent Tuesday in Miami.

Mrs. W. R. Boyd has gone to her former home in Kansas City for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Bess Skillman and Mrs. Howard S. Davis of Newark, N. J., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cromartie.

Among recent arrivals in Fort Lauderdale are Mrs. E. S. Ridgeway and daughter of Kirksville, Mo.

Miss Helen Pannebaker arrived here Wednesday from Wilmington, Ohio, to visit her sister, Mrs. Maynard Conklin on Middle street.

Mrs. Ralph Robinson of Miami, visited her mother, Mrs. A. F. Kerley, at the DeSota Hotel, Monday.

Mrs. Ray Waller left Monday to spend three weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. Fesperman, at Salisbury, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kant are the parents of a son, Robert Eugene, born Saturday, August 1, at their home in Riverside.

Miss Estella Howell arrived here Sunday from Ocala to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roy McJunkin.

M. J. Neff of Chicago, was a business visitor in the city several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Tooker went to Jacksonville last Sunday, planning to go from there to Philadelphia by boat, on their way to their home in Wilmington, Ohio. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McLean while in Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crichbaum of Lake Worth, were guests last Sunday of Miss Vera Beck and her father, Titus Beck at the New River Hotel.

Mrs. George McCain of Houston, Tex., joined her husband in Fort Lauderdale Monday. Mr. and Mrs. McCain will make their permanent home here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Manner of Detroit, Mich., were business visitors in the city during the past week.

Miss Rheta Hoey, who has been a guest of Mrs. R. H. Culpepper on Las Olas boulevard, returned to her home at Bainbridge, Ga., Tuesday.

Miss Janet Culverhouse of Ocala, has accepted a position with the Fort Lauderdale Bank and Trust Company.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Sperry have returned to their home on New river after several weeks vacation in the mountains of North Carolina and visiting relatives at Bridgeport, Conn., their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Hall and little son are again at home in Rio Vista, after a visit with relatives in St. Louis and a short stay in the mountains of Georgia.

In a Fort Lauderdale group enjoying dancing at the Holywood Golf and Country Club Saturday evening were, Miss Frances Phaw, Miss Janet Culverhouse, Ben Culverhouse, Ed Stone, Louis Oliver and Bill Lassiter.

BOYNTON

THE G. E. COON home on Ocean avenue, was the scene of an enjoyable party Tuesday evening, when Miss Marjorie Coon entertained in honor of her house guest, Miss Vivian McLin of Tampa. The evening was pleasantly spent with dancing and games. Punch was served throughout the evening, Mrs. J. C. Powell assisting Mrs. Coon at the punch bowl. Those enjoying the evening with Miss McLin and Miss Coon were, Miss Beatrice Marie, Miss Nannie Lou Richardson, Miss Erma White, Miss Marguerite White, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Dame, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Coon, and Messrs. Orville Knuth, Ballus Cline, D. S. Hudson, Bill Terry, Hugh Terry, Ewing Porter of Boynton. Out-of-town guests included, Miss Elizabeth Van Valkenburg of West Palm Beach, Sam Wohrtam and Joe Backus of Jensen, and Orien Van Valkenburg of West Palm Beach.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Philip B. Trigg and her Sunday School class of girls, "Willing Workers," met at the ocean beach for their monthly meeting. After the business session, swimming, and a picnic lunch in the pavilion were enjoyed. Those in the party were, Mrs. Philip B. Trig, Misses Ruth and Leila Martin, Verna and Alice Rousseau, Vivina Shepard, Ruth Lacey, Dorothea Benson, Marguerite Stephens, Juanita and Mary Frierson, Thelma Jordan, Callie Mae Rousseau, Louise and Thelma Marsh, Louise Menzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Funk entertained a large number of friends at dinner Wednesday evening at their home on Lake avenue, in honor of Mrs. L. E. Funk of Oak Park, Ill., a sister of Mr. Funk, who is spending a time with relatives here and in West Palm Beach. Covers were laid for 14 guests. The house was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and fern for the occasion. After the dinner dancing and music was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Funk's guests were, Mrs. L. E. Funk of Oak Park, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. James Loftus and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Lantana, Fla., Dr. and Mrs. Grady H. Brantley of Lake Worth, Mrs. R. C. Higgins of Boynton, J. J. Zeller of Chicago, Morey Dunn of West Palm Beach, and Dr. Rowe of Lake Worth.

The Sunday School class of Mrs. A. L. Culver was pleasantly entertained at the Culver home on the Dixie Highway, Tuesday afternoon. Games on the lawn and delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake helped to make the party an enjoyable one. Those present were, Elizabeth Minor, Thelma Jordan, Helen Shepard, Mabel Rousseau, Nellie Lewis, Evelyn Gibson and Mary Frierson.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy B. Jones have returned from their wedding trip and are at home in the Murphy apartment on Ocean avenue. Mrs. Jones, who before her marriage was Miss Audrey Hutson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hutson of this place, and Mr. Jones were quietly married in the presence of a