ing stations.

W. J. Conners who has done more than anyone man since Flagior's time to develop South Florida started his contractor to build ten new residences that will cost $3500 cach and has already cleared the ground where the famous Conners highway Joins Parrot avenue. His $25,000 home will be started at once and will be completed Feb. 15.

L. A. Hough who has the contract for two homes for the Arkell brothers and one for A. Freidman will finish them by Jan. 1.

H. F. Verden and J. E. Henderson have already finished and moved into their new homes on the Fort Pierce road.

The Florida East Coast Railroad have already finished and moved into their new homes on the Fort Pierce road.

The Florida East Coast Railroad extension to Miami under the supervision of M. J. Cole has already finished the first twenty miles of grade and a large crew of men is laying steel.

The Conners Highway company of Florida which is building a two million dollar highway from Okeechobee City to West Palm Beach expects to have it ready for travel by Jan. 15. Two news steam locomotives and fifty dimp chi added to the present equipment of six gas locomotives and one hundred cars will haul rock day and night from the large crushing plant located on the St. Lucle canal. The grade is all finished except two miles of road on the Palm Beach canal and three dredges are at work on this last lap of grade. The Conners highway company has one of the bost equipped sawmills in South Florida and has added a planing mill which will turn out finished lumber of every kind to build homes. The Conners Highway company has about 400 men on its pay roll.

Okeechobee has more truck planted this fall than has been planted in the last live years. W. J. Connors has over 300 acres planted in all kinds of winter vegetables and will continue

WEST INDIAN PASTOR, ENGLISH BORN, WANTS TO WORK AS JANITOR

(By international News Service)
DINVER, Dec. 9.—Born in England of a wealthy West Indian family, Rev. Joseph A. Thomas-Hazell, until recently pastor of a Denyer negro Presbyterian congregation, has upplied to Postmaster Frank L. Dodge for a "job" as fanitor.

Rev. Thomas-Hazell is a graduate of Oxford.

He resigned his pastorate here be-of Oxford.

He resigned his pasterate here because of dissension in the congregation and declared he is unable to accure employment as a minister because of "prejudice among leaders of the Presbyterian Church in Colorado against negro ministers."
