OKEECHOBEE RAISES FUND FOR ROAD JOB

Citizens Put Up Money for Project Outlined at Meeting Work on State Road No. 29 Pending Bond Election

OKEECHOBEE, Aug. 26.—(Tribune Special.)—Money was deposited here today for construction of State Road 29 south to Moorehaven and Fort Myers, which provides money for the construction of the last link in Road No. 29, leading south from Okeechobee This highway leading—north to Kissim-, mee and Orlando is provided by a bond issue recently sold in Osceola county and will cross the state highway from Kissimmeo to Melbourne and the pro-posed Vere Beach-Tampa highway.

posed Vere Beach-Tampa highway.
Citizens here have not provided funds for comploing the link leading north from this city to the Osceola line, because it was desired to collect money due Okeechokee county from while others sent their regrets at not line, because it was desired to collect money due Okeechobee county from the Styte Highway Department to creet this link, but growing weary of waiting they have decided to bond this county for the money necessary to build the Link to Osceola county.

Politions are being circulated today

relitions are being circulated today calling on the county commissioners to call a bond election immediately for this purpose. Construction of Okce-chobee's, missing link in Road 25 means the completion of the highway down the center of the state, shortening the route between Orlande and Kissimmice and West Palm Beach and William to the purpose of the Jacksonville Traffic Bureau and Missimmice and West Palm Beach and Mr. Guthrie is former manager of the Jacksonville Traffic Bureau and Miami some 80 miles and provides a short central route through the middle of the state for both lower cast and west coast cities to the Georgia line via Orlando, Gainesvillo and Lake

Haines City Gets Office Haines City was understood to be the central place of operations and offered to furnish an equipped office for the use of the manager and his representatives. The expense is ap-portioned among the various particl-pating communities in an equitable manner. Each city has a member on the board of governors and the board will elect their own officers and executive committe and will meet at the call of the manager who is secretary of the board. Enthuslasm pervaded the meeting from beginning to end and Saturday, Sept. 4, was set as the day for final reports from the oftles mentioned above and for coinpleting the organization

FORM WALTON LEAGUE BRANCH AND DISCUSS NEW LAWS AT OCALA

OCALA, Aug. 26 .- (Tribune News Service.)-For the past week state representatives have been in the city securing members and organizing a local chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America. They have secured 50 names of the most prominent men of the city. This body of men met last night at the chamber of commerce for the purpose of selecting their officers for the first year with the following result: Harry B. Clarkon, president: Sam T. Wilson, vice president; Horace L. Smith, secretary and treasurey.

They also discussed the purposes of the organization and went on record as a body to try to have the following laws enacted at the next legislature; Prohibit the sale of black bass in the fish markets; a state wide fishing license of $1 for residents of the state; a limit of 10 black bass in one's possession in one day; a closed season on black bass during spawning season, March, April and May; a lower hunting license fee than the one now in existence and only state-wide hunting and fishing liceuses to be issued: to repeal all county laws in regard to hunting and fishing.
