

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C.

CHAMBERS OF JUSTICE TOM C. CLARK

March 1, 1955

Dear Mrs. Underhill:

To your good self and all the Underhills and the Aldermans I send my thanks for the perfectly delicious oranges and tangerines. They have already been partly eaten, so I suddenly realize how tardy I am in thanking you.

Billy came in with the Wards, looking well and happy and reports you all are well and of course this I am glad to hear.

Thanks so much for the fruit. If I stay healthy and happy it will be your fault.

Love,
